Alexandria Gazette. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1908.

THE PRESIDENT REBUKED. Resolutions, rebuking President Roose velt for his recent open letter on religion prepare ourselves to meet in its relation to political life were introduced at the meeting of the Philadelphia Bapt'st Ministerial Association yesterday by Rev. A S. Hobart, professor of the Bible and of Paytoral Theological Orozier Sminary, at Chester.

At Dr. Hobart's request the resolutions after being read, were tabled with the resolutions committee, and discusion and action on them postponed to the mesting a week from next Monday, when a spirited debats is expected.

The resolutions reaf:
Whereas the president of our country basees fit to denounce from his high office as unwarranted bigotry the action of some of our citizens who refuse to ignore religious teners in connection with their voting; therefore be it Resolved, that as was our fundamental traching we steadfastly maintain that man's religious faith, that is, his attitude toward God, should not be male a test for any political office, but his moral and intellectual alone should be considered leaving him absolutely free in purely religious matters.

Resolved. That, as we unders'and the facts, the Roman Catholic Church lays a c'a'm on its clergy and its mem-bers not only for submission to ecclesia tical superiors in matters of opinion, but in all matters of daily life, and has for centuries, whenever it was possible, sought to visit physicial pains and pen-alties on the disobedient, and has until now and still continues to teach bitter hestility to our public schools and our separation of church and s'ate, and seeks to get from our government recognition at Washington as a foreign political power entitled like other powers to representation here and therefore is, and calms to be, very much more than a religious organization, but a very real and wily and mighty political or-ganization, controlled from abread by men who are neither familiar with nor in sympathy with our governmental

Resolved. That we appeal from our president, excited and seemingly ignorant of church history, to our president, cooled off and better informed.

Resolved further. That it is not in accord with our American liberty that men be called bigots who exercise the right of private judgement in matters of so much importance as their vote.

A' resolution designed to indorse the Lutheran ministers, opposition to President Roosevelt's attitude toward the Ostholic Church was tabled after a tie vote yesterday at a meeting of the Presbyter an Ministers' Association in New York.

THE DEBT CASE.

When Special Master Littlefield, of the U.S. Supreme Court, opened the hearings of the Virginia-West Virginia debt case in Richmond yesterday it developed that West Virginia was not ready with her evidence. Virginia was not ready with her evidence. Virginia will introduce no witnesses, but depend upon the records, which embraces a trunk full of witten testimony. At the request of counsel for West Virginia the hearing was postponed until February 15.

Sanator Spooner, speaking for West Virginia, said that he was not prepared to go on with the case, although he had no objection to proceeding with the evidence on the part of Virginia.

what Would You Do.

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the rain? Such injures are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the rain almost instantly, and unless the lojury is a very severe one, will cause the pairs to heal
